What we have to say

"My dream (identified today in "Vision and Values") was to create an association of practitioners capable of providing global high-quality services to our clients. We believed in our project and cultivated it with enthusiasm and determination.

Our collaboration with Grant Thornton International began 15 years ago, as a correspondent firm, and this enabled us to obtain international visibility and to improve our skills and expertise. Our integrated structure has been further enhanced by becoming a member firm in 2008.
